THANK YOU FROM JACKIE SZALKOWSKI

Dear All Saints Family,
 Thank you all for your prayers and support. It means so much to be a part of such a caring group of people. Even when we cannot be together physically, we have been able to maintain a feeling of community and belonging with each other. I am feeling great, and ready to move ahead. I know we'll have to find a congregation up here when things open up, but All Saints will always have a big place in our hearts. God will continue to bless His little white church. Many thanks and God bless you all.
 Jackie

In Scripture Today

Mark 11:1-11

Holy Week begins with a palm procession and the proclamation of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem from the Gospel of Mark. Christ enters the assembly now, just as he did then, and we praise his presence among us. "Hosanna" is now our song, pleading for salvation.

Mark 14:1—15:47

Twice each Holy Week we hear the entire story of the betrayal, arrest, trials, abuse, and crucifixion of Jesus. Because it is Sunday, we listen to Mark, the synoptic gospel of this year. In Mark's gospel, the death of the messiah is the incongruous secret that is manifest now in the believing community. Read in the Sunday assembly, the passion of Christ leads to the eucharist, which is always a celebration of the resurrection.

Isaiah 50:4-9a

Christians have seen in the Servant Songs descriptions of Jesus Christ. In Christian interpretation, the reading sounds as if Jesus is describing his own ill treatment, an important theme in Mark, although he affirms his innocence and his trust in God.

Philippians 2:5-11

We join with Christians of the first century in a creedal poem: Christ humbled himself to death, and God has raised him as Lord. The ancient song is a summary, not only of our baptismal faith, but also of the Holy Week that has begun.
