EVERYTHING IS COMING UP DAFFODILS

Like the dozens of daffodils that have popped up along Rockbridge Road to welcome folks to the church, let us spring up, bear fruit, and meet the challenge to paydown our mortgage principal.

Our new relationship with nVision will bear even more fruit as new tenants and resulting income streams pop up. And finally, these cheerful flowers give us hope for our future as we continue the call process.

THANK YOU FROM BETTY

I would like to thank my Church friends and family at ASL for all the beautiful birthday cards I received and for always thinking of me. I am so blessed to be a part of such a wonderful Church and your thoughts and prayers have always been a blessing in my life".

---Betty Bradford

In Scripture Today

Third Sunday in Lent

During Lent, the church prepares its catechumens for baptism, and it renews its members in the meaning of baptism. Today's readings highlight the difference between first-century Judaism and the Christian gospel: Christ is a replacement for the Jewish religious rituals. Yet many contemporary Christians maintain with Paul that God's promises to the Jewish people continue: apparently God has more than one way of mercy.

John 2:13-22

This gospel is a primary example of John's use of narrative to proclaim Christology. Christ is the temple. Coming to church in Lent is coming to Christ, whose body is raised from death and who lives now in the community of believers. Our Passover is the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Exodus 20:1-17

The Decalogue, which arose in a period of Israelite history prior to the building of the temple, is appointed for this Sunday to highlight both the similarities and the differences between the evolving biblical Judaism and the community of Christian believers. The Commandments understand all human life as conducted before God. In the New Testament itself (for example Matthew 5) we encounter the earliest of continuing Christian appropriation and reinterpretation of the Ten Commandments. Historically, attention to the Commandments has been part of baptismal catechesis.

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

This reading helps connect the Ten Commandments with Christ as the replacement of the temple: Paul contrasts the faith of the baptized with both Greek learning and Jewish signs. In Lent we affirm the gospel with its offer of the weakness of the crucified Christ.
