In Scripture Today

Matthew 25:31-46

Extraordinarily influential throughout the history of Christianity, this parable has often functioned as “law,” the command to care for the neighbor that is bolstered with the threat of hell. As “gospel” we see the parable as affirming the continuing presence of Christ in our midst. The risen Lord is not far away in some heaven, but is present around us every day.

Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

The passage from Ezekiel was chosen to parallel Matthew’s parable, since it also uses imagery of the king, judge, shepherd, good and bad flocks. Christians have seen in Ezekiel’s promise of a shepherd like David a description of Jesus Christ. This very Sunday we are fed by this shepherd both words we can eat and bread and wine we share.

Ephesians 1:15-23

This prayer and creed were chosen on this Sunday to laud the triune God—the Father of glory, the Lord

Jesus Christ, and the spirit of wisdom and revelation—and to affirm faith in the continuing authority of the risen Christ as ruler over everything. We are the saints who receive Christ's spirit of wisdom; we have been enlightened see Christ's power at work; we are the body of Christ on earth. Be sure that a skilled reader proclaims this complex reading.
