Pentecost - Ordinary Time Reformation Sunday

Introduction to the day

Genuine repentance and pretentious piety stand in stark contrast in the gospel and all around us. All creation stands in need of God's forgiveness. Keep the faith. God's people—"all who have longed for his appearing"—shall be accounted righteous for Jesus' sake. Our God is merciful to sinners. For all this the assembly glorifies God forever.

Jeremiah 14:7-10, 19-22

In a time of drought, the people pray for mercy, repenting of their sins and the sins of their ancestors. They appeal to God to remember the covenant, to show forth God's power, and to heal their land by sending life-giving rain.

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

The conclusion of this letter to a young minister offers a final perspective on life from one who is now facing death. Though others have let him down, Paul is sure of his faith in the Lord, who has stood by him and lent him strength.

Luke 18:9-14

The coming reign of God will involve unexpected reversals of fortune with judgment rooted in mercy. Jesus tells a parable in which the one who humbles himself is exalted and the one who exalts his own righteousness is humbled.

In Worship Today

All are welcome!

Join in song, prayer, and commune at the Table of Jesus. If for any reason you do not want to commune, you may certainly come forward for a blessing. Simply place your hand over your heart as you approach Pastor Stover.

Please welcome Vicar Ellen Knott and her husband Darius Knott, who live in Atlanta.

Prior to seminary, Ellen was involved in the Virginia Synod youth events, the Lutheran Youth Organization Board, and even served in the synod office as the youth and young adult ministries intern.

She attended Southern Seminary where she met Rev. Andrea and Rev. Kyle Bates. Shortly after graduation, Ellen and Darius were married. Darius' was established in Atlanta, working here since graduating college 4 years ago.

As a young interracial couple, the diversity they see throughout the city is life-giving. She writes, "I feel called to participate in racial reconciliation work in this city. So, I patiently await a call here."

Pastor Kim Stover

Russ' Reminders—

All known ASLC birthdays and anniversaries are listed in your Church Directory. We can print you a copy or you can view the directory on your PC or Smartphone. It's all pretty easy once you move through the learning curve, which is more like a speed bump. Contact Rica Kelly with changes and updates to all directory information.

It's easy: go to www.allsaintslilburn.org and find the link, "Member Directory Link." Click on that link and log in. You'll see it all!
