In Ministry This Week
Annual Meeting

Introduction to the day

Consideration of and care for those in need (especially those "at our gate," visible to us, of whom we are aware) is an essential component of good stewardship. It is in the sharing of wealth that we avoid the snare of wealth. It is the one whom death could not hold—who comes to us risen from the dead—who can free us from the death grip of greed.

Amos 6:1a, 4-7, PBp. 747

The prophet Amos announces that Israel's great wealth is a cause not for rejoicing but rather sorrow, because God's people have forgotten how to share their wealth with the poor. The wealthy will be the first to go into exile when judgment comes.

1 Timothy 6:6-19, PBp. 965

Timothy is reminded of the confession he made at his baptism and of its implications for daily life. His priorities will be different from those of people who merely want to be rich.

Luke 16:19-31, PBp. 851

Jesus tells a parable in which the poor one is "lifted up" and the rich one is "sent away empty." Jesus makes it clear that this ethic of merciful reversal is not new but is as old as Moses and the prophets.

Next Week's Texts, Oct. 6

Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4 Wicked surround the righteous; wait for the Lord

Psalms 37:1-9 Commit your way to the Lord; put your trust in the Lord. (Ps. 37:5)

2 Timothy 1:1-14 Guard the treasure entrusted to you: faith and love in Christ

Luke 17:5-10 Faith the size of a mustard seed

In Worship Today

Welcome to Worship. You are welcome to commune at "Jesus' Table" for the embrace of God's love, the knowledge of Christ's grace, the nurture of faith, and the assurance of forgiveness.

Have you ever felt or thought that you were responsible for everything! We know we are not, but sometimes that responsibility rule just kicks in without thought. And we just think "It's all up to us!" Sometimes this feeling or thought comes at a time when everyone you know is busy with something else.

Martin Luther (not King, Jr.) wrote that some days he was so busy, the only thing he could do was pray.

For those who bear the burden of hyper responsibility, a simple prayer, "God, gently put me in my place, Amen" might be the best prayer to say. (You don't need to use all the right words, three or seven petitions, or form it along any prescribed prayer formulas, though that would be very responsible of you!)

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks a very liberating word, though we may be too focused on the fires of hell to hear it! Keep listening clear to the end of the Gospel Text! There is great news!

Russ' Reminders—

All known ASLC birthdays and anniversaries are listed in your Church Directory. We can print you a copy or you can view the directory on your PC or Smartphone. It's all pretty easy once you move through the learning curve, which is more like a speed bump. Contact Rica Kelly with changes and updates to all directory information. It's easy: go to www.allsaintslilburn.org and find the link, "Member Directory Link." Click on that link and log in. You'll see it all!

Change of Date

A member of the Lilburn community will be preparing a meal for the congregation on Sunday, December 15, rather than on December 14 as previously announced. Maggie's meal will replace our regular Fellowship Meal, so the assigned group of meal providers will have that Sunday off. Merry Christmas!

Who is Maggie? Maggie works at Good Samaritan Clinic (two locations) a provider of medical care for the poor.

(<https://goodsamgwinnett.org>)

She arranges various parties here at ASLC for friends and relatives.

Christmas Day falls on a Wednesday, so Christmas Eve Service will be on Tuesday, December 24.
