Pastoral Leadership During Transition

Pastor Julie Crosby will supply with us through July 12. Pastor Ruth Hamilton starts as Interim Pastor on July 15, with her first Sunday leading worship on July 19.

Let's hear it for Mary Kay Kates! She is now coordinating our prayer list as well as maintaining the church calendar. Calendar maintenance is separate from coordinating outside group usage; Kim Faas is the contact for our outside groups.

Email Mary Kay with any prayer requests or calendar items at marykaykates@gmail.com.

In Worship Today

Moses tells the Israelites that they are called to be a priestly kingdom and a holy people. Jesus sends out the disciples as laborers into the harvest. In baptism we too are anointed for ministry, sharing God's compassion with our needy world. From the Lord's table we go forth to proclaim the good news, to heal the sick, and to share our bread with the hungry.

In Scripture Today

Matthew 9:35—10:8 [9-23]

On the Second Sunday after the Epiphany, we heard John's narratives of the call of the first disciples, Andrew and Peter. Matthew lists twelve men, about some of whom the gospels say nothing specific, although Christian tradition commemorated the twelve on designated dates. We stand to hear this gospel, for Jesus is calling us, who are now to proclaim the good news.

Exodus 19:2-8a

This passage from Exodus is chosen to parallel Matthew's call of the disciples. In the Israelite past, during Jesus' ministry, and in our own time, God calls people to be "a priestly kingdom and a holy nation."

Romans 5:1-8

Grounded in the triune God, hearing of faith, peace, grace, hope, and God's love, we are ready to receive the gospel's call to follow Christ.
