Congregational News

Pastoral Leadership During Transition

Pastor Julie Crosby will supply with us through July 12. Pastor Ruth Hamilton starts as Interim Pastor on July 15, with her first Sunday leading worship on July 19.

Target Sunday for Return to Sanctuary

Write this in PENCIL on your summer calendar. We are moving toward resuming worship in the sanctuary Sunday, Aug 2nd.

*****Be sure that is written in PENCIL with an eraser handy in case we can't get everything in place, i.e., hand sanitizer stations, masks, signage, etc. by that date.

*****And assuming we have the go-ahead from the SE-Synod with no unexpected glitches

We Cannot Wait to see Each Other in person!

In Scripture Today

Matthew 10:40-42

In a time of disagreement as to which traveling preachers ought to have authority in the church, Matthew, using the Old Testament designation of "prophet," claimed that the legitimate teachers bear the authority of the name of Jesus and embody the power of God. This passage, the conclusion of Matthew's second discourse, follows last week's words about taking up the cross: thus "the reward" of which Matthew speaks is ambiguous.

Jeremiah 28:5-9

In another of Jeremiah's adventures (see Lectionary 12), he had donned an oxen yoke as a sign of the Babylonian domination of Judah. In this passage, Jeremiah denounced Hananiah as a false prophet who was speaking easy and welcome words about divine blessing and the end of the exile. Jeremiah warned that words about peace might not be the word of God.

Romans 6:12-23

Continuing through his letter to the church in Rome and writing in the Greco-Roman culture that assumed a slave economy in which most people served those placed above them, Paul employed the metaphor of slavery to describe the powerful domination of sin. Paradoxically, freedom in Christ is also slavery to God.
